Opportunities To Showcase Your Business

BNH consistently encourages people to shop locally and to utilise locally available services and offers members a number of different opportunities to showcase their businesses, so here's a reminder of what's available.

- o Although entries are now closed the inaugural Purple Ink Business North Harbour Business Excellence Awards has given entrants and awards Partners the ability to showcase their business and share their successes, with all the finalists being celebrated at the Gala Dinner on 17th November.
- o Add your business to the Business Directory on the BNH website. This is an opportunity to showcase your business and attract more customers and it's completely free to BNH members and associate members.
- o Our annual ONE DAY SALE is coming up on Saturday 2nd December, so if you're a wholesaler, retailer or distributor register your business to be part of this shopping extravaganza. (Fees apply)
- o Add a post sharing information about your services and any offers you may have to our BUY NORTH HARBOUR Facebook page, again free of charge.
- o Add an offer to our Member Offers page on the BNH website at no cost.

For more information on how to showcase your business and to find out how to make the most of these opportunities contact our Office Manager Kate Thorpe admin@businessnh.org.nz

Supporting Members Starting Out On Sustainability

Article Eight – Tell Your Business' Sustainability Story

With more and more organisations and consumers practicing 'conscious consumerism' as they consider the sustainability practices that businesses have implemented before they do business with you or buy your products or services, it's important that you are able to tell your business' sustainability story. Calling All Exporters And Potential Exporters

Business North Harbour (BNH) is working in collaboration with the Ministry of Foreign Affairs & Trade (MFAT) to provide a short series of monthly articles containing useful information and resources to BNH members who currently export or are considering trading in offshore markets.

In this second article we provide information on MFAT's 2023 Strategic Foreign Policy Assessment, Market Intelligence Reports and The Export Help Desk.

MFAT's 2023 Strategic Foreign Policy Assessment – Last month MFAT released its 2023 Strategic Foreign Policy Assessment - 'Navigating a shifting world - Te whakaterere i tētahi ao hurihuri'. This document looks at our foreign, trade and development policy in the context of a changing world. This may be useful for businesses to understand the international context they are operating in at a high-level.

Market Intelligence Reports – MFAT's Market Intelligence Reports are reports from New Zealand's international network of Embassies and High Commissions on topics of interest to the New Zealand export community, such as new sustainability regulations, opportunities in emerging markets, and supply chain updates. You are able to view them online or subscribe to have them delivered to your inbox as they are released. You can also subscribe by topic and geography so you are able to receive reports most relevant.

The Export Helpdesk – If you have an issue exporting to an offshore market, the export helpdesk is here to help with a dedicated team who will look into the issue and identify what government agency is best placed to assist you. You can fill in the web-form at Tradembarriers.govt.nz, call 0800 824 605 or email exports@mfat.govt.nz.

If you want to know more about MFAT and the support that they can offer exporters or potential exporters, you may find more useful information on the following webpage: Trade | New Zealand Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Trade \(mfat.govt.nz\).
