Keeping It Local

Kia ora tatou,

The BNH ONE DAY SALE on Saturday 2nd December, proved to be a very successful event for most participants, hopefully kick-starting what will prove to be a productive final month of the year for member businesses, as people look to buy their festive season gifts and other necessities. It's important that we all look to support our local business community by buying local and utilising locally available goods and services, so please do your bit to help by "keeping it local".

As the end of what has been another very challenging year for many members fast approaches, I'd like to acknowledge the fact that for some, simply surviving the ongoing difficult economic climate is in itself a noteworthy achievement. I sincerely hope that the change of government brings the positive changes to the economy that people are hoping for and that the new year proves to be a year in which member businesses transition from surviving to thriving, only time will tell.

In closing I would ask you to please note that the BNH offices will be closed from Friday 22nd December 2023 and will re-open on Monday 8th January 2024.

Ngā mihi mahana,
Kevin O'Leary

Police Making Enquiries On Threatening Emails

Kia Ora,

Police are today responding to emails of a concerning nature directed to a number of organisations throughout New Zealand, including hospitals and places of worship.

Police staff are working with those impacted and each organisation may respond differently according to their individual circumstances and the information available to them.

The emails are similar to those received by a number of organisations on 23rd and 24th November and we are working to establish the origin of the emails.

We ask that organisations who receive the emails continue to report them to Police, to assist in our ongoing enquiries to identify the origin of the emails.

Any threat received will be treated with the appropriate caution however, Police have not established any actual threat at this time.

Police acknowledge how unsettling these emails are for all concerned and thank all involved for their cooperation.

Police will not be disclosing the names of individual organisations that received emails.
