Economic and Commercial Office of the Chinese Consulate-General in Auckland Attends Business North Harbour Event

On 16 October, Consul Wang Chengguang, head of the Economic and Commercial Office of the Chinese Consulate-General in Auckland, attended the second BOSS Day hosted by Business North Harbour. More than 200 people attended, including New Zealand Minister of Education and Minister of Immigration Erica Stanford; Minister of Commerce and Consumer Affairs and Minister for Small Business and Manufacturing Cameron Brewer; Member of Parliament Nancy Lu; Business North Harbour General Manager O'Leary; and association members.

Erica Stanford, Cameron Brewer and Nancy Lu spoke highly of the contributions made by migrant communities, small businesses and Chinese entrepreneurs to New Zealand's economic development. In his remarks, Wang Chengguang used the letters in "BOSS" to highlight business-focused engagement, mutual support, small and medium-sized enterprises, and supply-chain cooperation. He said China was ready to work with all parties to actively implement the four global initiatives, strengthen practical and effective regional cooperation, and use platforms such as the China International Import Expo and the Canton Fair to build "chains of shared success" through supply chains, enable outstanding SMEs to grow their businesses, and share the opportunities offered by China with the world.

Business North Harbour currently has 4,500 members. The North Harbour Business Improvement District it manages is one of Auckland's fastest-growing commercial and industrial areas in recent years.
